

Engaging with Aging

A Free Program to Promote Quality of Life Before a Crisis Happens

Join us for "Engaging with Aging," a lunchtime presentation on Tuesday, April 29, at Oak Street Health's Portage Park clinic

"Engaging with Aging" will include an informal panel discussion on questions about estate planning, aging-in-place, senior living communities, long-term care insurance and more, with an emphasis on planning ahead before a crisis hits.

Bring your own concerns or concerns for a loved one and get answers about services available to preserve your options and quality of life while aging. Panelists will include:

- Robert Stelletello, Owner, Right at Home - Oak Park/Chicago, an aging-in-place specialist.
- Eleonore Weber, Medicare, Life and Long-Term Care Insurance Consultant, Your Life Security, on long-term care and how healthcare insurance coverage is affected by the Affordable Care Act.
- Meredith Morris, Owner, Caring Transitions, a transition and senior relocation specialist.

"Engaging with Aging" will begin at 12Noon – 1:30pm.
To attend this free program, please RSVP to 815-670-0600.
A light lunch will be provided.
