

Eleonore D. Weber

Eleonore has spoken to individuals, families, groups, associations, and corporations for over a decade to educate and create protection when the unexpected happens. And it always does. Her presentations and workbook make her the ultimate resource locator for all things financial, legal, medical, and legacy. And creates a wake-up call for participants ... before the unexpected happens!

Life is full of surprises. She often says,
“We love the good ones and loathe the bad ones.”

Eleonore's most requested presentations include:

Discover the Emergency Basics that Will Flip Your Everyday World Upside Down

Participants will have a cheat sheet to use and resources to help.

Discover the 9 Essential Skills Every Caregiver Needs to Survive Caregiving

Participants will take away the must-have 9 essential skills that will become the lifeline to avoid the chaos and confusion.

Why Create an Essential Resource Workbook?

A valuable, useful tool to enhance family communications during a life-changing event.

Sandwich Generation: Dispel the Myths of Long-Term Care and Avoid Future Pitfalls!

Myth 1: I am too young to need long term care.

Myth 2: The government will take care of me.

Myth 3: I'm already covered with health insurance.

Myth 4: My children will take care of me.

Myth 5: It's too expensive. I can save enough on my own.

Eleonore D. Weber is a speaker and consultant, working with families and individuals to create protection when the unexpected happens. Her personal goal is to help others avoid potential emotional and financial gaps and pitfalls.

Her work in life, health, and long-term care insurance is dedicated to ensuring her clients' desires are well-documented, so loved ones and their designated agents can carry out their instructions and wishes. The result: families follow them without confusion and conflict.
